

A man with a beard and short hair, wearing a dark green vest over a blue long-sleeved shirt, stands in a barn. He is leaning on a metal railing. In the background, several cows are visible, including one with black and white patches. The barn has a wooden structure with skylights.

The service

Regional Access is a free phone and online counselling service for people who are feeling the pressures and stresses of everyday life.

The service is for anyone who lives or works in regional, rural or remote South Australia and is aged 15 years and older.

You can call us 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

What to expect

Our professional counsellors will listen and help you develop practical strategies to manage what is causing you to feel worried or stressed.

Each session is tailored to your needs and will focus on what's going on with you.

You can also book up to three additional counselling sessions.
